

Kevin Bryenton

General Secretary
International Association of Bridge, Structural,
Ornamental and Reinforcing Iron Workers
Washington, D.C.

Kevin Bryenton is the general secretary of the International Association of Bridge, Structural, Ornamental and Reinforcing Iron Workers. The office of the general secretary represents over 125,000 members throughout Canada and the United States. Kevin is currently a trustee of the Ironworker Management Progressive Action Cooperative Trust, the Ironworkers National Training Fund and the International Association and Local Union/District Council Pension Plan. He has worked as an instructor in the National Training Fund's annual summer training program and has had extensive involvement in curriculum, training standard and manual development. Kevin completed B.Sc.H. and B.P.H.E. degrees from Queens University and a bachelor of education degree from the University of Windsor. He is also a graduate of the Harvard Trade Union Program and Cornell University's National Labour Leadership Initiative. Kevin is a past member of the International Foundation of Employee Benefit Plans Canadian Board and the Apprenticeship, Training and Education Committee.