

Rebecca Clemons

County Manager
Williamson County
Georgetown, Texas

Rebecca has served at Williamson County for eighteen years, including working with the auditor's office, budget office, and county judge's office and as the senior director of human resources. She was recently appointed as the first county manager in 2024. Williamson County has a self-funded benefits plan that serves over 2,000 employees, which Rebecca has helped guide over the past six years. Rebecca holds a bachelor's degree from the Mays Business School at Texas A&M University.