

Frances Donald

Global Chief Economist and Strategist
Manulife Investment Management
Montréal, Québec

Ms. Donald is chief economist and head of macroeconomic strategy for Manulife Investment Management. In her role, Ms. Donald forecasts global macroeconomic and financial trends, analyzes the economy and capital markets for potential opportunities and risks, and serves as a thought leader both within the firm and externally. As a senior member of the asset allocation team, she coordinates global macro research, assists in the team's return forecasts, and contributes to portfolio positioning views. She's a frequent public speaker and regularly appears in international media, including Bloomberg and CNBC. Prior to joining Manulife, Ms. Donald worked as a financial economist for Scotiabank in Toronto and a global macro analyst for Pavilion Global Markets in Montréal. Earlier in her career, she held various positions at Deloitte, Roubini Global Economics, and Bank of Canada. Ms. Donald earned a B.A. degree (honours) in economics from Queen's University and a master's degree in economics from New York University.