

Tony Fanelli

Executive Director
Construction Labour Relations Association of Ontario
Mississauga, Ontario

Tony Fanelli is the executive director of the Construction Labour Relations Association of Ontario and oversees its operations, playing a lead role in provincial I.C.I. collective bargaining, dispute resolution, jurisdiction, and contract administration in the Province of Ontario. He has held senior-level positions with some of the largest engineering, procurement construction contractors (EPCs) in North America, accumulating over 30 years of experience in human resources, labour relations, personnel and business development. Fanelli has sat on various pension, welfare, apprenticeship and training trust funds throughout his career. He has been a management trustee on the Teamsters National Pension Fund since 1985 and United Associations' National Training Trust Fund since 1996. Fanelli has chaired various construction associations such as the Boilermaker Contractors' Association and Industrial Contractors Association of Canada. His experience spans a broad range of sectors including nuclear, hydroelectric, fossil, solar and wind power generation, as well as infrastructure including roads and light rail, manufacturing, oil refineries, upgraders, liquified natural gas, pipelines, petrochemical and steel mills. Fanelli graduated from the University of Western Ontario, and continued his education at the University of Windsor in the bachelor of commerce program.