

William F. Feyling

Administrator
Carpenter Funds Administrative Office of Northern California, Inc.
Oakland, California

Bill Feyling is the administrator of the Carpenter Funds Administrative Office of Northern California, which provides health, retirement and other related benefits to over 85,000 covered lives throughout Northern California. He is the former chair of the Carpenters Health and Welfare Trust Fund for California and currently serves on the International Foundation's Board of Directors and Administrators Committee. Mr. Feyling is an employer trustee and chair of the OPEIU Local 3 Pension Fund. He is a founding member and director of the California Health Care Coalition and has over 30 years of experience in the labor relations and benefits field, having served on numerous construction industry and fringe benefit related boards and committees. He attended the Harvard Program on Negotiation, focusing on interest-based bargaining, and has been a speaker at numerous conferences focusing on arbitration, labor relations and employee benefit plans.