

Richard G. Gerasta

Senior Vice President
Segal Consulting
Chicago, Illinois

Mr. Gerasta joined Segal Consulting in 1991 and became senior vice president in 2005. He has over 28 years of experience in benefits consulting with actuarial expertise. For over ten years, Mr. Gerasta was responsible for Segal's Midwest training and development of the consulting staff. He works with multiemployer clients on health and welfare design and funding issues. Mr. Gerasta's current clients include a range of local, statewide, regional and national plans. Prior to joining Segal, he was an actuarial consultant at a major benefits consulting firm where he focused on corporate retirement plans and merger/acquisition due diligence. Mr. Gerasta is a frequent speaker at benefits conferences and other industry forums. He holds a bachelor of science degree in actuarial science and finance from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, and holds producer licenses in several states for life, accident and health.
