

Dan Madison
Journeyman Pipefitter
Jarrell Mechanical
St. Louis, Missouri

Mr. Madison is a journeyman licensed pipefitter and a member of Plumbers and Pipefitters Local 562 in St. Louis, Missouri. Local 562 has approximately 4,500 members who serve the plumbing and mechanical industry in 67 counties in eastern Missouri. Prior to becoming a journeyman pipefitter, Dan attended Southern Indiana University on a soccer scholarship and studied business administration. In his spare time, Dan enjoys golfing, boating and supporting various charitable organizations, including the Juvenile Diabetes Foundation and Angels Arms, a charity that helps provide loving homes for foster children in the St. Louis Metropolitan area. Dan's father is a longtime member of the International Foundation and currently serves on the Professionals Committee.