

Anna Marenick, M.B.A., CCMP, CPHR
Vice President of People, Culture and Belonging
Nova Scotia Health
Halifax, Nova Scotia

Anna Marenick is a successful human resources and transformational change leader with extensive regional and national experience leading multi-faceted and complex programs in diverse and challenging environments. Anna joined Nova Scotia Health in 2021 in the role of senior director of organizational change management and later took on the role of interim senior director of people services. Prior to joining Nova Scotia Health, she was the senior director of people and governance at Develop Nova Scotia. Her creative, inclusive approach to solving complex problems in a variety of settings makes her exceptional at collaboratively propelling ideas and people forward. She sits on the Board of Directors for Saint Mary's University. She is also actively involved in the Governor General's Canadian Leadership Conference. Anna has a master of business administration degree from Saint Mary's University and a bachelor of arts degree in political science from St. Francis Xavier University. She is also a Prosci Certified Change Management Professional and a Chartered Professional in Human Resources.