

Joan S. Tanaka

President

Prudent Benefits Administration Services, Inc.

Toronto, Ontario

Ms. Tanaka is president of Prudent Benefits Administration Services, Inc. (PBAS), which administers benefit trusts and other benefit programs throughout Canada. Ms. Tanaka entered the benefits field in 1967. Since 1979, her work has centered on benefit programs, including multi-employer, as both an administrator and a consultant. Ms. Tanaka has served the International Foundation for several years as a conference speaker and a member of its various committees. She is currently Canadian Sector Representative on the International Foundation Executive Committee, Executive Committee Liaison on its Canadian Board and a member of the Strategic Initiative Steering Committee and the Canadian Strategic and Program Planning Committee. Ms. Tanaka formerly served as Voting Member and Advisory Director to the Foundation Board, Past Chair of the Canadian Board and member of the Canadian Strategic Planning Committee (Ad Hoc) and Trustee Education Committee (Ad Hoc). She is a director of the Multi-Employer Benefit Plan Council of Canada (MEBCO) and the chairman of the FSCO Administrator Advisory Committee on Pensions. Ms. Tanaka was awarded the International Foundation's 2014 Canadian Lifetime Volunteer Award for her years of service in the employee benefits industry.
