

Malichi Waterman

Vice President and Consulting Actuary
Segal
Atlanta, Georgia

Malichi Waterman is a vice president and consulting actuary in Segal's Atlanta office. He consults with a variety of public sector clients for actuarial valuations, benefit improvement studies, experience studies and a wide array of projects, as requested. He has experience with GASB 67 and GASB 68 reporting, State of Florida FS 112.664 filings, and calculations associated with State of Florida Chapter 175 and 185 contributions as well as expense and contribution projections, including asset liability modeling. Mr. Waterman has over 25 years of experience in the retirement field. He is a Fellow of the Conference of Consulting Actuaries (FCA), a Member of the American Academy of Actuaries (MAAA[®]) and an Enrolled Actuary (EA). Mr. Waterman regularly makes presentations to retirement boards, city councils, and county commissions. He has also presented at Segal's technical actuarial meetings and at the Conference of Consulting Actuaries annual meeting. He is an instructor with the Andrew Young School of Public Policy at Georgia State University, where he teaches an annual class on retirement and benefits. Mr. Waterman holds a bachelor of business administration degree, specializing in actuarial science, from Georgia State University.